The Border Consortium

The Border Consortium works towards a more open, safe and humane border management system. We are a collaborative network of organisations focused on improving the lives of people affected by migration and borders. We bring together expertise from across the globe to develop innovative solutions and advocate for change. Our work is grounded in human rights and the rule of law, and we are committed to working alongside communities to build a more just and inclusive world.

Our partners include a diverse range of organisations from around the world. We welcome new members and encourage collaboration with those who share our values.

The Border Consortium (TBC) is an independent non-governmental organization (NGO) focused on border management and humanitarian assistance. TBC's approach is based on understanding the root causes of migration and displacement, and advocating for policies that address the underlying issues. TBC works with local communities, governments, and international organizations to develop sustainable solutions to border-related challenges.

TBC's work includes providing humanitarian assistance, advocating for policy changes, and building capacity among local partners. TBC's projects aim to improve access to basic services, strengthen community resilience, and promote peaceful resolution of conflicts at the borders.

In summary, TBC is a leading organization in the field of border management and humanitarian assistance, working to address the complex challenges faced by communities along borders worldwide.
